From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings to the Glorious Barony of al-Barran! This past month brought many events, both local and far. Thank you to all of you who were able travel near and far to events to help support our Kingdom and spread the wealth of the populous in Our fair Barony. We want to give a special Thank you to Her Highness Slaine and His Highness Alrik Boleslavson for autocratting this year's Baronial Champions. Champions was a glorious event full of great comradery and fun. We welcome all of Our new Champions!

This month is much less crowded by events but still looks to be a great time. We will be attending StagsCon / Queen's Prize / Queen's Whim on October 13th in Caerthe. Otherwise we will be remaining in town for local activities.

The camping season is mostly over for this year. Make sure that your gear is repaired and complete so that it will be easier to get it out again for WAR. We are on the road to WAR with a fall and winter season of War practice at the park. Come out ready to fight and train hard in order to take a strong army of fighters and artisans in support of Our kingdom at Estrella War!

We still have several events planned for this year. The Day of Arts and Sciences, Toys for Tots and Midwinter all promise to be exciting. Please plan on attending these events to help support your barony!

In Service,

Gregor
Baron

Monika
Baron

From the Chronicler

Well, here it is. The new Baronial Shaft. Hopefully a little more lively and more interesting. I am still accepting articles and covers for upcoming issues, so please feel free to send in things that you think the Barony would enjoy reading.

I would like to take this opportunity and let those who are interested in writing an article know how to properly submit one. This office would prefer all articles to be sent in a Microsoft Word document through email, also including a copy of the article in the body of the email, in case there is some trouble with the file. For those who would like to submit original artwork to be considered for the cover of the Shaft or for filler inside the publication, please send original artwork to the Baronial Shaft post office box. If you would like your artwork returned, please include a self-addressed stamped envelope.

So sit back, relax, and enjoy your publication...maybe with a nice cup of tea and some biscuits.

Lady Teresa MacDuffie

From the Webmaster

Greetings al-Barran!

Have you seen the website lately? Activities and event listings are being updated regularly including new photos! If you would like to contribute to your website by designing an event page, becoming my deputy or otherwise contributing content, please let me know.

al-Barran Weminister report for July - September 2007

The site has undergone some minor revision this quarter with the addition of the Baronial Armorial and Discussion lists and major revisions to the Activities, Court, Event and Officers pages. Many thanks to the other web designers in the Kingdom for their inspiration. Future plans include adding content to the Library page and the elimination of frames (though this may take some time).

In service,
Ryan de Caergybi, CP
al-Barran, Outlands

From the Mistress of the List

To all who come by these words do I, Searlaith inghean Roibeard, send greetings.

At the upcoming coronation of their Highnesses, Alrik and Slaine, I will be stepping down from my position as Baronial List Mistress and stepping up into the position of Kingdom Mistress of the Lists. If you are interested in the position of Baronial MOL, please send a letter of interest/intent to myself (sealeiroibeard@aol.com), the Seneschal, Y (yplairge@aol.com), and Their Excellencies, Gregor and Monica (coronet@al-barran.org).

Fair Weather!

YIS,
Bantiarna Searlaith inghean Roibeard
Barony of al-Barran
Mistress of the Lists

Court Dancing

Court Dance practices at fighter practice will be October 21 and 28 at Bataan Park, from 12:00 to 2:00pm. Everyone, age 7 and up are welcome at our court dance practices. Bataan Park is at the NW corner of Lomas and Carlisle. For more information concerning court dancing in al-Barran, please contact Lady Jayne at 293-7453 or kreg@aps.edu or join the al-Barran Music and Court Dance discussion list by going to http://groups.yahoo.com/group/alBarranMusic_Dance/ This free yahoo discussion list will give you the latest information concerning dance practices and Scorpion Scales music practices in al-Barran.

Yours in service to the dream,
Lady Jayne Barber

From the Deputy BRM

Greetings from your Local Friendly Rapier Marshals!

Fall is here, and with it comes the beginning of War season. Our veterans will be honing and perfecting the combat long studied, our newer folk discovering a whole different world on the battle field. Take the time to explain team spirit to them, and what drives you to dedicate your efforts to your barony and kingdom.

We're still looking for donations for an entire set of loaner gear for the park; we've got a solid start. Loaning out your gear needn't be an excuse to watch from the sidelines this season. We need all of our fighters!

Next year's Grand Outlandish will be something extra special, and our Baronial Rapier Marshal is taking a very direct hand in the planning and organization. JT Whoreschum will not be around the practice park as much as usual. If you have a question for him in his absence, please see myself, Saeloman of Erlinstar, and your concern will be answered as soon as possible. JT can still be reached by anyone if necessary, at pyratecook@yahoo.com. I can be reached at spitfiyre@yahoo.com, or at 265-5319.

Yours In Service,
Saeloman of Erlinstar,
Deputy BRM

The Curious Quill: Roses at War

By Jacqueline du Champ

One of the rose's most famous historical events was the fifteenth-century England's War of the Roses between the houses of Lancaster and York. Is it based on legend rather than historical fact? The concept is that the Lancastrians wore a real rose usually considered to be an 'Apothecary's Rose' also known as R. gallica officinalis or "The Red Rose of Lancaster, while the Yorkists wore the 'White Rose of York' also known as Rosa x alba.

The notion that real roses were worn probably owes more to Shakespeare's Henry VI, Part I than it does to historical truth. A five-petaled rose was used as a heraldic device in England for centuries by the Plantaganet monarchs. So various personages using a colored rose as a device was common. Edward I used a golden rose as his device. It is unlikely that real roses found their way into battle. The Tudor Rose of Henry VII, which is a small white rose inside a red one, unites the houses of Lancaster and York. It is a purely symbolic and heraldic creation.

"I cannot rest until the white rose that I wear be dy'd Even in the lukewarm blood of Henry's heart..."

Shakespeare; Henry VI Part I

Queen's Prize, Queen's Whim, and Stags Con

Saturday, October 13th, 2007

8:00am until 5:30pm

Barony of Caerthe and the College of Three Spires

Metropolitan State College of Denver

Site Fee: $5

This fall, on Saturday, October 13th, 2007, the Barony of Caerthe and the College of Three Spires will be presenting not one, not two, but three events in one: Stag's Con, Queen's Prize & Queen's Whim.

Come and celebrate the best of the Outlands' arts and service! In Addition to the traditional Queen's Prize, Her Royal Majesty would like to add a new idea to the day, Queen's Whim.

Information on Stag's Con will hopefully be available soon.

The event will be held at Three Spires, on the Auraria Campus, at St. Cajetan's Church and the Plaza building. The event will be free; parking passes will be provided, but you must contact the Autocrat no later than October 1 to reserve one. Without a parking pass, parking will cost $4-5. A donation lunch will also be provided. More information will follow.

Your friendly Co-Autocrats are: Mistress Arwen Southernwood (Arwen@caerthe.org) and Mistress Catrin von Berlin called Gwen Cat (tgrcat2001@yahoo.com)

THE SCA LOSES ONE OF IT'S OWN

Fond Greetings unto the noble populace of al-Barran.

It is with heavy hearts that we bring you sad news of Don Sorin's passing on September 30, 2007 at 10:35pm. He was admitted to St. Vincent's hospital in Santa Fe on Wednesday, Sept. 25 with liver and renal failure. He passed without pain, with his loved ones around him and in prayer.

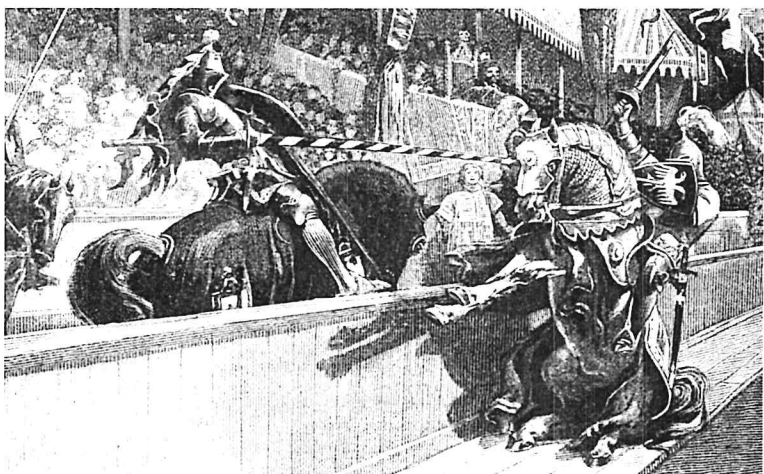

Don Sorin was the grandson of Don Echevarian and cadet to Don Heinrich. He was the twenty-fourth whitescarf of the Outlands. Sorin was also one of the first Queen's Guards of the Outlands. He has graced us all with his love, his kindness and his honor, which he wore upon his sleeve.

Sorin was the type of man who went out of his way to assist or serve anyone, SCA or mundane. He touched many in our fine barony. Let's remember him for the life he has led and the lessons he taught. Don Sorin is survived by two siblings, his parents, one cadet, and the nearly forty members of Erlinstar, which he created. Please keep him in your prayers.

Yours in Service,

Ld. Traithgren McCormick, cadet to Don Sorin

And Lady Saeloman of Erlinstar

We continue to support our mighty King and his challenge to the Known world. Al-barran will be glorious in the hearts of children again this festive season and will show the known world our grand generosity. We will hold our traditional tournaments for our Toys for Tots champions both Heavy and Light. HRH Alarik Boleslavsson is our current Heavy weapons T4TChampion and Lord Michael McQuillane is our current light weapons T4Tchampion. We look forward to a wonderful day filled with genourosity and fun. We have a most wonderful Prize table in the planning by Mistress Genevre, There will be high quality prizes for all who fight and help with this event, your generosity will be rewarded beyond anything you have witnessed before!

Please also join us for a donation lunch provided by the wonderful talent of Lady Sile Inghean Duibh Darach.

Directions to Bataan Memorial Park: Take your best route to I-40 and Carlisle Blvd. Go south on Carlisle until you reach Lomas Blvd. Turn Right on Lomas and the park will be on your right hand side next to the Walgreens
